

Uniform Standard of Dress Effective 2015-2016 School Year

Shirts/Tops/Sweatshirts:

Students may wear the following types of shirts, sweatshirts, and tops:

GRADES K-8:

- Any solid colored shirt with a collar.
- School shirt t-shirts allowed on school Spirit Days only.

GRADES 9-12:

- Collared polo or dress shirts, long or short sleeved in any color (all solid colors, all striped colors, all patterns, and all trim colors).

GENERAL GUIDELINES (GRADES K-12):

- Turtle necks allowed.
- Commercially produced crew-neck sweatshirts (with or without a district/school logo) with a collared shirt underneath will be allowed at all grade levels (no hoodies).
- All shirts/tops may be tucked in. In the event they are not tucked in, shirts/tops must fall below the waist, but not be longer than three inches below the waist.
- Polo and collared shirts are to be buttoned within two buttons from the top.
- No midriff may be exposed.
- Logo (hand-sized) on the front of shirt/top allowed.

School sweatshirts with hoodies allowed on School Spirit Days only.

Sweaters/Sweater Vests:

Students may wear sweaters or sweater vests in all solid colors, all striped colors, all patterns, and all trim colors as long as a collared shirt meeting the requirements of shirts/tops is worn underneath.

Khakis or Dress Pants/ Shorts/Skirts/Skorts:

Students may wear pants, shorts, skirts, and skorts in solid navy blue, black, gray, brown or tan/khaki, subject to the following restrictions:

Additional Standards of Dress:

- Belts may be worn.
- No flip-flops or house slippers may be worn.
- Footwear must have a closed heel or back strap.
- Dress scarves may be worn.
- Jackets may be worn in classrooms due to variations in building temperatures — no hoods are allowed.
- Kenneth D. Bailey Academy follows the Grade 9-12 guidelines.
- No hoodies are allowed.

Danville School District No. 118 encourages a standard in behavior, dress, grooming, and appearance that reflects pride in self, home, and school. This standard of dress applies to all Danville District No. 118 Schools, grades K-12, with the exception of Northeast School which already has its own uniform standard of dress.

Religious and other good cause exemptions to the Uniform Standard of Dress should be addressed by the building principal.
